IMMERSIVE FARMING FOR SOULFUL LIVING

Step in to discover a whole new world of organic products and a wide array of organically grown fruits and vegetables. Our chemical-free, non-GMO, gluten-free, plant-based / vegan-friendly product range aims to support vibrant health and sustainable lifestyles. From brown rice pasta, organic MCT oil, to BBQ jack fruit - be surprised to find exclusive products you will find nowhere else!

Our passion for delivering a wide portfolio of organic products would be hollow without the true sons of the soil – the farmers. After all, it's their obsession for producing organic crops, their understanding of the soil, and their love for Mother Nature that helped us bring you the best of the season, every season. Each of the organic farmer's practices 'Immersive Farming' and beliefs in the irrefutable truth that human health is interconnected with ecological health. Every action of theirs resonates with their single-minded goal to preserve nature and enrich your life.

WILDER'S ORGANIC TEA RANGE

The tea that you're about to enjoy was hand-plucked from the misty mountains of Sri Lanka. But this is no ordinary tea. These leaves were grown on internationally certified organic lands, harvested by certified organic farmer groups, processed & packed at certified organic factories, & brought to you by some truly organic people. Prepare yourself for something special!

WILDER'S ORGANIC JACKFRUIT

The mighty Jackfruit is one of South Asia's best kept secrets as it has been used as a delicious alternative to meat for centuries! Hailed as the world's largest tree-borne fruit, Jackfruit is rich in fiber and nutrients such as folate, niacin, riboflavin, potassium, and magnesium and has a rich meaty texture when cooked. Jackfruit is also considered one of the world's most sustainable crops, known for its low environmental impact due to its modest water consumption and land use.
